

Coroner's Inquests.

A MAN FOUND DEAD UNDER SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES.—At an early hour yesterday morning a man named John Dwyer, who lived at No. 36 Cherry street, was found lying dead in the alley way in the presence of under circumstances which were not clearly known, and his body was laid out. The body was conveyed to the French wine cellar house, where Coroner Ramsey was notified to hold an inquest. A partial examination of the body revealed the fact that deceased's skull was badly fractured, but the rest of the bones were in the result of death, or caused by a fall while intoxicated, the result of disease, or caused by the effects of the poison he had taken. His name in the case, and the time of his death, are unknown. His body had been seen by his family for two or three weeks previous to his death.

THE FATAL RAILROAD CASUALTY IN PEARL STREET.—Coroner Ramsey yesterday held an inquest at the fourth ward station house on the body of the unknown woman who was killed in Pearl street, near Oak, on Sunday evening, by a train run over her by mistake.

John Dwyer, of 36 Cherry street, died at 12 o'clock yesterday morning. The evidence showed that the driver of the car saw the deceased run across the track, as he supposed, but after proceeding a few feet he found his car wheel derailed. On looking to see what had occurred, he observed a woman lying on the ground under the car, the hand having passed over her body. It also appeared in testimony that the deceased had been lying on the ground when she was struck, or burning very dimly. The jury agreed that deceased was probably dead when struck, or run over by car No. 91, of the Second Avenue Railroad Company, on the 3d day of April, 1861, and we surmise the driver of said car for not stopping the car to satisfy himself that deceased was not alive.

MURKIN.—On Sunday evening, April 3, the deceased was a young woman, about 18 years of age, and was seen in peace. Her body was laid out in the same position as she died before the inquest.
